July 17, 1952 - December 25, 2010

Psalms 23:4

“Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear, no evil, for you are with me; your rod and staff, they comfort me.”

Albert Evans, Sr., son of Arthur Evans, Sr., and Ida Mae Durham, was born on July 17, 1952 in Warrenton, NC. He went to be with the Lord on December 25, 2010. Albert Evans, Sr., was a loving and devoted father, brother, son, and friend. Before, and even during his illness, he always carried a smile and laughed an infectious laugh. He was very pure in heart.

He leaves behind six adoring sons and daughters; Albert Evans, Jr., Delmar Bracey, Antoine Carter, Elijah Evans, Teresa Evans, and Idamae Carter. He also leaves behind four grandchildren, nine brothers and sisters Pearl Ebron, Arthur Evans Jr., Diane Evans, Melvin Evans, Wilbur Evans Tracey Adams, Brenda Hill and Howard Evans, his mother- and father-in-law, Mr. & Mrs. Joseph Carter, and other wonderful people who touched his life and who's lives he touched.

Albert Evans, Sr., has gone from being a shining star on earth to being a blissful angel in heaven. He will be missed.

So Go and Run Free

So go and run free with the angels

Dance around the golden clouds

For the lord has chosen you to be with him

And we should feel nothing but proud

Although he has taken you from us

And our pain a lifetime will last

Your memory will never escape us

But make us glad for the time we did have

Your face will always be hidden

Deep inside our hearts

Each precious moment you gave us

Shall never, ever depart

So go and run free with the angels

As they sing so tenderly

And please be sure to tell them

To take good care of you for me

“ A Time For Everything

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

a time to be born, and a time to die;

a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together;

a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

a time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

a time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

a time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

What profit hath he that worketh in that wherein he laboreth?

I have seen the travail, which God hath given to the sons of men to be exercised in it. He hath made every thing beautiful in his time:

also he hath set the world in their heart, so that no man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end.

I know that there is no good in them, but for a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life. And also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labor, it is the gift of God. I know that, whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it: and God doeth it, that men should fear before him.

That which hath been is now; and that which is to be hath already been; and God requireth that which is past.

Uncle you have touched many many lives and you will be missed....tell my grandma & granddad and my other family other there I said hello
