

Albert G. Dorsey

September 14, 1947 - October 17, 2002

Albert Gregory Dorsey, the eldest son of Lewis and the late Dorothy was born September 14, 1947. He departed this life on October 17, 2002. He was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools. Albert was employed at several companies as a machinist and longshoreman, as well as with the Department of Housing, along with various other jobs. He met and married Paulette Butler in September 1966. Of that union, he had two daughters, Renelle and Rhonda. In later years, Albert met Theresa Worrell and from that union there are three children, Albert Jr., Aisha and Kamaria Dorsey. Al Two, or Al, as his friends affectionately knew him, was knowledgeable on a variety of subjects, topics and issues. Albert enjoyed mostly listening to various types of music, sitting on the steps reading, looking up saying, "Hey, what's up?" A great debater was he. We loved you, and you will be deeply missed. To mourn his untimely death are: his father, Lewis Dorsey; four daughters, Renelle, Rhonda, Aisha and Kamaria Dorsey; one son, Albert Gregory Dorsey III; one granddaughter, Reneisha Jackson; two grandsons, Je'Won Blackledge and Cortez Scott; four sisters, Margo Johnson, Othesa, Marsha and Phyllis Dorsey; two brothers, Reginald and Mark Dorsey; one aunt, Margaret Chase; two great aunts, Venus Armstrong and Gertrude Baker; one brother-in-law, Carl Johnson; twenty-four nieces and nephews; a special friend, Theresa Worrell; and a host of cousins and friends.
