

Albert Hopkins

May 4, 1926 - May 30, 2005

Albert Hopkins Hopkins, son of the late Charlie and Atlie Curbeam Hopkins Caldwell, was born on May 4, 1925 and fell to rest quietly at home on May 30, 2005 in Baltimore, Maryland. Al, as he was sometimes called, was one of thirteen children born in Fairfield, South Carolina. He accepted the call to Christ at the Mt. Visit A.M.E. Church in Fairfield at an early age. He was educated in the Fairfield, South Carolina school system. After relocating to Baltimore, Maryland as a young adult, Al secured a job with the Bethlehem Steel Company. He worked there faithfully for forty-two years and retired thereafter. He married the former Bessie L. Harris and to this union one son, the late Albert Hopkins Jr., was born. He enjoyed life and had a unique laugh that was infectious and admired by all. Al loved his family and his friends dearly. He enjoyed just being Al, and he gave of himself unselfishly. Al leaves to mourn and cherish his jubilant memory: three sisters and two brothers-in-law, Elizabeth Capers (Vaux Hall, N.J.), Francis and Spencer Scott (Summit, N.J.), Maggie and David Stevens (East Orange, N.J.); four brothers and four sisters-in-law, Fred and Essie Hopkins (Summit, N.J.), David and Loris Hopkins (Scotch Plains, N.J.), Henry and Marlene Hopkins (Loris, S.C.), Dennis and Priscilla Hopkins (Charlotte, N.C.); two grandchildren, Antoine Hopkins and Sharhonda Hopkins; eight great-grandchildren, Sean Hopkins, Demetrius Hopkins, Deandre Hopkins, Shyheim Hopkins, Karon Hopkins, Aneko Hopkins, Markia Holmes and D. Sartara Hopkins; special friend, Ms. Bea; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends , I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 5:28,29 where Jesus says "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." It is my hope that this scripture comforts you.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
