“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "there is going to be a resurrection". Also, Revelation 21:3-5 tells us that Almighty God will remove sickness, pain, sorrow and death. May you receive much solace from this wonderful hope found in the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To The Family of Mr. Albert Fields, I would like to offer my deepest sympathy for the loss of your loved one. Times like these are never easy but the Bible encourages us to throw our burdens on God and he will sustain us (Psalm 55:22) in our sorrow. John 5:28-29 also speaks about a time when there will be a resurrection of those who have fallen asleep in death. Continue to lean upon the God of all comfort (1Cor1:3-5) to gain the strength needed to endure. Warmest regards, Chandra Murphy##imported-begin##Chandra Murphy##imported-end##

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family for the loss of Albert. It's so hard for a family to deal with the passing of a loved one, but they say time heals all wounds. In time you may be able to reflect on fond memories with joy; knowing that your loved one is at peace. Look forward to the time when he will be ressurected, because rest assured that time is soon coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus's voice and come out. John 5:28,29. Whenever you are feeling sad remember that you have the comfort of our heavenly father who's always there for us. In his word he promises: "For like a man whom his mother keeps comforting, so I shall keep comforting you people. Isaiah 66:11. Take care family.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
