Safely Home I am safely in heaven, dear ones; Oh, so happy and so bright! There is perfect joy and beauty, In this everlasting light All the pain and grief is over, Every restless tossing passed I am now at peace forever, Safely home in heaven at last. And He came Himself to meet me In that way so hard to tread; And with Jesus arm to lean on. Could I have one doubt or dread? Then you must not grieve so sorely. For I love you dearly still; Try to look beyond earth's shadows, Pray to trust our Father's will. Going Home Birds in Flight symbolizes the end of a Christian Life One bird is shown leaving the flock and "Going home", to his final reward. The three remaining birds continue their journey through life with peace of mind, Knowing their lost loved one is now in God's hands.

“ The richness of the human experience is in what is handed down from one life to the next –not simple things of mortar and stone, but memories of what one said or felt or did. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

“ To the friends of Albert M. Jolls: It is with much regret that I was unable to attend the funeral services of my brother and friend, Albert Jolls, because of my being out of the United States on a teaching assignment in Spain. To give all of you a small picture of what Albert was like, I wrote a short piece that was read at the funeral service. For those of you who would like to share this short, informal, incomplete history of Albert Jolls the man and the brother, copies may be obtained from his son Allan. Thank you for being interested in the life of my brother. Kenneth R. Jolls University of Oviedo Oviedo, Spain July 17, 2002##imported-begin##Kenneth R. Jolls##imported-end##
