“ I am just finding out about Albert. I have been texting with no responses and decided to call his cell then hopped on the internet. Oh my goodness, i am broken today as i mourn this loss. Albert and i were former coworkers. He was a great manager and full of positive spirit even when he was fighting his illness. I know he is resting in a better place now. In my culture i say "Albert, sun re o". Meaning good night and sleep. Very very painful but im glad i saw you before you passed on.

*“ I can't believe you are gone. We spent plenty of days on our front porch playing spades night and day. You were like a big brother. Praying for your family. Tammy had just said she had not heard or seen you in a while. I could not believe her when she called to say you had went on to your heavenly home. Rest my brother.

*“ Eventhough we didn't see other much and most of our communication was by phone during the holidays or by text with him diligently reporting his progress every Wednesday during his illness, I considered Tab and I good friends. He was at Poly and I at Western, but we did not connect as friends until UMCP. I always tell the story of how one cold September during college, Tab saw me freezing as I walked across campus and the next day my coats were brought to my dorm. I will always remember him for his kind spirit and generous heart. May the family find peace in your memory of him. Love, “ Albert was a good friend and co-worker. We would laugh and talk and encourage each other everyday. I especially loved his taste in clothes "Marshalls" was one of his favorite places. It was a complete shock when I heard the news, and I still can't believe it. He was truly a good friend, and I'm glad to have known him. He was truly one of a kind. wow I can't believe he is gone so soon.

Tab and I went to Poly together and then we met up again at UMCP. We spent many nights at the computer lab on campus trying to get the many loops out of our programs and wondering what we were doing wrong. Tab was a fun guy and he will be missed.

“ I knew Albert as a former co-worker. His passing came as a shock to me. He came across as a cheerful, sometimes blunt & hard working person. May God bless his soul and give the family strength to bear the burden of the loss.
