“ It has been an honor and a privilege to have known a great woman that treated me like a son. A woman that with her love helped ease the pain of losing my own mother. I will miss your smile, laughter and joyful wit as my wife would often tell me "don't laugh at her". I enjoyed the gatherings and cooking for you and my family. I wish I could relive all over again. I am thankful for you bringing forth an amazing child who became my wife and my sisters and and brothers whom I love and appreciate very much as well. So as we celebrate your life I thank you for your love. Now God has called you home and He says well done my faithful servant. Till we meet again love you Ma.

She said everyday she was rich in faith and family and loved her children, grandchildren and great grands. She always promoted to love life, cherish family and enjoy life. And she did just that. I'ma miss yo mom but thanks for the 61 years of memories we shared together. Until we meet, your Verl ❤️
