

Albertis Glover

December 3, 1935 - December 13, 2008

Albertis Glover was the oldest daughter of the late Edward Johnson Sr. and the late Elsie Mae Allen. She was born December 3, 1935 in Baltimore, Md. On December 10, 2008 God sent an angel to escort her home to be with Him. She received her education at Dunbar High School, where she graduated. After accepting Jesus Christ as her Savior at an early age, she was an invaluable servant of God. In the early 1970's, she joined East Baltimore Deliverance Church under Dr. Christina (Phillips) Holtsclaw, who was the pastor at that time. She served as a deaconess, pastor's aide, and an usher. She never missed a service unless she was ill. She loved her pastors and her church, especially Pastor Annie Jackson and the youth. She adopted many young people as her godchildren. Bert, as her family affectionately knew her, was a loving, caring person. Although she had no children of her own, she worked as a foster care parent for more than 10 years. The children in her neighborhood would see and greet her as Ms. Glover, which always brought a smile to her face. She leaves to mourn 6 sisters, April Purnell, Audrey Parker, Joanne Lambert, Elizabeth Jones, Shelia Johnson; 6 brothers, Charles Johnson, Edward Johnson Jr., James Jones, John Johnson, Reginald Allen and Tiney Allen; sister-in-law, Loretta Johnson, 2 brothers-in-law, Tyrone Purnell and Antonio Lambert, 2 step-mothers, Mary Johnson and Zelma Johnson, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends and her beloved church family at East Baltimore Deliverance Church, who will deeply miss her.

“ I send my warm and sincere sympathy to the family of Albertis. Know that the God of all comfort is with you at this difficult time. 2nd Cor 1:3,4 One day there will be no more pain on this earth, because Jehovah God will end all sickness and death. Even the memory of this painful life will be erased from our hearts, because Isaiah 65:17 promises, "For here I am creating new heavens and a new earth, and the former things will not be called to mind, neither will they come up into the heart." Your loved one is never forgotten by God, and he has promised to ressurect our loved ones back to life. John 5:28,29 May the hope of the ressurection be a great source of comfort to you in the days to come.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Revelation 21:3-5 promises that sickness, sorrow, pain and death will be done away with. Also, Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful hope found in the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##
