

Albright Wilkerson

February 10, 1939 - December 5, 2013

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. —
II Timothy 4:7

On December 5, 2013, ALBRIGHT WILKERSON, JR. (known as “Junior” and “Godfather”) peacefully departed this life at Seasons Hospice and Palliative Care, after a lengthy illness.

Junior was born on February 10, 1939 in Newsoms, Virginia to the late Stella B. and Albright Wilkerson, Sr. Junior accepted Christ at an early age and joined Mount Tabor Baptist Church in Newsoms, Va., where he attended regularly with his parents. Junior was educated in the Southampton County Public School System.

Junior moved to Baltimore, where he met and married his life partner, Virginia James, on July 29, 1961. From this union came one daughter, Diane Wilkerson. He spent his working career working as a Heavy Equipment Operator for Banner Masonry Corp. He retired from Banner Masonry Corp in 2001 after thirty-three dedicated years.

Junior loved everyone, family and friends. He loved listening to music, talking on the phone and watching his Westerns. He was a kind, loving and good hearted person. He was willing to give any and everyone a helping hand, no matter day or night.

Junior was preceded in death by his parents and two brothers, Eugene Wilkerson, Sr. and Harry L. Wilkerson.

Junior leaves to cherish his memories, his loving and faithful wife of fifty-two years, Virginia Wilkerson; one daughter, Diane Wilkerson; one son, Paul Salter; two granddaughters, Natasha and Latoya Hawkins; three grandsons, JonVante Nicks, Joshua and Isaiah Salter; one great- granddaughter, Dymond Chase and one great-grandson, Malachi Hawkins; two sisters, Elizabeth Benton of Newsoms, VA and Mary Brown (Herbert) of Baltimore, MD; one brother, Ivory J. Bynum; one aunt, Elva Blow; one special nephew that he raised, Calvin Wilkerson; three goddaughters, Stacey, Tracey and Jacqueline Day; five sisters-in-law, four brothers-in-law, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives and friends.
