“ *Please accept my deepest condolences on the loss of your dear Aleane. The death of a loved one can be very painful, even when their years seemed many. May you draw much comfort from the wonderful promises found in Gods' Word The Bible. At John 5:28,29, Jesus himself, tells us not to be surprised to be reunited with our dead, welcoming them back to a beautiful paradise earth. It reads in part, " Do not marvel at this, the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice, and come out....". You see death really is unnatural. As a matter of fact, Our Heavenly Father hates it. That is why he calls it an "enemy"( 1 Corinthian 15:26), an enemy that he will soon destroy forever (Isaiah 25:8). Then the earth will be filled with happy, healthy and peaceful mankind (Psalms 37:9-11, Revelation 21:3,4 and Isaiah 33:24). Isaiah 25:8 lets us know that once The Creator says something, it will not be undone. May you have a measure of peace and much hope in our glorious future. Mrs. D.
