

Alease Ferguson

July 19, 1947 - August 22, 2012

Alease Ann Ferguson was born on July 19, 1947 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on August 22, 2012 after a lengthy illness. Alease was an inspiration to many as she courageously battled and endured the difficulties of her illness. Alease's answer to the question "how are you" was always answered with "I'm still trusting". One of Alease's final requests was to leave a message to her family and friends. She said the details of her life were not important, but she wanted to leave this final message in her own words.

"From an orphan, rejected from being adopted at the age of five, now adopted in Christ, as an ambassador for Him... To the Saints of God: I leave to the Saints, "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land" (2 Chronicles 7:14). I call on all that they must preach the Gospel, the whole unadulterated Word of God. Take time to explain what the Gospel means and how they (people) can be saved, that souls may be saved and know that Christ is the Savior and Lord. I leave to all to share about the blessed hope of Jesus Christ. I love you all in the matchless name, the name above every name, Jesus Christ."

Allease leaves to mourn: her sister Ms. Ilean Lewis, a cherished god-daughter, and a host of close friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
