

Alease Ida Payne

October 2, 1929 - July 1, 2013

Alease I. Payne, daughter of the late Allen Blueford Sr. and Alease Charity-Blueford, was born on October 2, 1929 in Kings County Hospital in New York. She departed this life on July 1, 2013 from health problems.

After the passing of her mother, she moved to Clay Bank, Virginia to live with her grandparents. Her grandparents took her to church on Sundays. Alease found God at an early age. She taught us to pray and trust in God.

Alease received her education at the Gloucester County Schools. She had many friends. She lived with her grandparents until she got married. She worked for the Bunting Oyster House; and was also a seamstress.

In 1971, she moved her family to Baltimore, Maryland. She later worked as a home care nurse. She had a kind heart and a beautiful personality. She didn't want people to suffer. In the end, God didn't want His daughter to suffer any longer. It was time for her to leave us.

Alease leaves to mourn: brother, Allen Blueford Jr.; sister, Olivia DeMun; sister-in-law, Kay; five children, Joyce, Shirley, Michelle, Darnell and Robert; son-in-law, Antonio Sr., five grandchildren, Chris Jr., Nigel Jr., Angela, LaVonya and Antonio Jr., the mother of Nigel Jr.'s children, Lakieha Young; the father of Angela's son, Carl Bowman; three great-grandchildren, De'Arra,

Christian and Nigel III; close family friends, Robert and Charlotte Johnson, the Moulden family and Irvin Graves; and a host of family and friends.

“ Please accept my condolences to the family during this difficult time. It is never easy to lose a loved one in death. Please find comfort and hope in God's word at Revelation 21:3, 4.

M. Hodge - July 05, 2013 at 12:41 PM

“ I am so sorry you have lost your loved one in death. It is a very difficult concept for us as humans to grasp. It is not in God's original plan for us. However, God is the God of all comfort, "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord, Jesus Christ, the father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort." -2Corinthians 1:3

Sincerely,
