

Alease Loretta Robinson

December 31, 1933 - March 10, 2017

Alease L. Robinson was born December 31, 1933 to the late Lena and James Davis. She was the youngest of 12 children. She received her education in the Richmond Public Schools.

Early in life yet still a teenager she married her soul-mate in 1950 the late William Robinson affectionately known as “Grandpa Robinson”. From this union they had 6 children; 2 of which preceded her in death Stephen and Wilbur Robinson.

Alease gave her life to Christ at an early age. As she walked with God and grow in the Word, she dedicated her life to Christ and joined Crusade For Christ Family Worship Church. There she gave herself unto the Lord and worked in the vineyard diligently for over 30 years. Her favorite scripture was Psalms 23.

Mother Robinson was a devoted pillar of her church and was named “Mother” of the church. Mother Robinson loved hats. She always adorned her head with a wide array of hats from all over the world. She also loved to sing. Mother Robinson stood at the doors and greeted and welcomed everyone into the sanctuary for many years.

Mother Robinson loved her family and leaves to cherish her memories three daughters;

Doris Robinson-Brown (William), Joyce Umoh and Barbara Mapp (William); one son William Robinson, Jr.; one sister-in-law, Frances Kittrell, one brother-in-law, Joseph Armstead; 13 grandchildren, Carla, Tracy, Robert, Nicole, Monica, Afon, William, Jr., Wilbur, Ashley Shadonna, Crystal, and Cameron; 19 great grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends. Mother Robinson loved people and everyone she met loved her. She made you smile with every "Hello" "God Bless You" and "How You Doing." Mother Robinson will truly be missed.
