

Alec Louis McLean

January 21, 1957 - March 21, 2008

Suddenly on Good Friday, March 21, 2008, 1:17p.m. at St. Agnes Hospital God called ALEC LOUIS MCLEAN, SR. to come home. He was very restless while on dialysis and went into cardiac arrest. Alec was a loving person with good spirit. However, if you got him wrong he would let you know his feelings. His favorite saying was "don't mess with me". He was a product of private and public schools in Baltimore City. He was an entrepreneur in the downtown area with his car wash business "Alec and Sons". He would do whatever he could to help anyone. If he did not have the means to help you he would ask his family for their assistance. He was a very neat person and loved the most fashionable clothes and cars. It was no surprise for him to give flowers and balloons to his loved ones. Alec was blessed to the late Elmer Louis McLean and Odessa Delores McLean; he was the older of the two sons. He loved his late grandfather, Deacon Thomas Phillips, Sr. and talked about him on a regular basis. His grandmother Roberta was truly his heart. He loved his children and sometimes was impatient with them if they did not do what was expected. He would tell them not to make the same mistakes he made. His little brother Van, as he often referred to him, was his love and tried to be his protector. He was a lover of animals, especially large dogs and snakes. His nick-names were "Snakes" and "Candy Man". He was raised in the Israel Baptist Church. He accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Savior and was baptized under the leadership of the Pastor Edmond D. Meade. At one time, he played drums in church for Pastor Durant. In 2007, he came back to unite with Israel and did not continue with the classes. He was there a few weeks ago to worship with his grandmother and mother. His former wife, Joyce McLean preceded him in death. Alec was blessed to have five children: Alec Jr., Mary, Alexa, Justin, and Antwan McLean. In 2005 he married Fifi Kane and she has one daughter, Maimounat Koumareou. He loved his wife Fifi. During his illness, he still tried to do everything possible for her. He still made repairs in her downtown hair salon. Alec made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true and devoted man. Alec leaves to cherish his memory: his loving and devoted wife; Fifi; loving grandmother, Roberta Phillips; devoted mother, Dr. Odessa D. Dorkins; caring stepfather, Vernon R. Dorkins; three sons, Alec Jr. (Dihema), Justin and Antwan McLean; two daughters, Mary Ruth and Alexa O. McLean; five grandchildren, Aleisha, Shadega, Jordan, Kayla and Yori McLean; brother, Vanroderick (Van) Louis McLean, Marietta, GA; two sisters-in-law, Gloria McLean and Sofi (Modibo) Dillio; father-and mother-in-law, Boubacar and Marian Kane, Africa; two uncles, Thomas (Hilda) Phillips and Wallace McLean, Brooklyn, NY; aunt, Sylvia McLean Johnson; great-aunt, Ida Mae Solomon, Muffin, SC; two nephews, Vanroderick L. and Colby R. McLean; two adopted aunts, Irene Thompson and Trudell Summers; other relatives and friends.

“ To the family. I could not imagine such a loss, so I ask that you please accept my wholehearted condolences, knowing that I surely could not fully understand how you feel. I would just like to leave you with a comforting scripture that gives us not only hope for the future, but also some relief in our time of mourning. John the 5th chapter, verses 28 and 29 says, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which ALL those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus Christ) voice and come out." Yes, in the very near future we will have the wonderful opportunity to welcome our dead loved ones who have fallen asleep in death back to life, right here on a paradise earth. (Psalm 37:10, 11, 29) May the words found in the Bible ease your pain as we await the fulfillment of these promises.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

“ To the family of Mr. McLean, I offer my sincere sympathy. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. Rest assured that God purposed for us to live a long eternal life and his purpose has not changed. He offers the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) for those who have fallen asleep in death and the hope of life everlasting (Rev 21:3,4) for those who exercise faith (John 3:16). May this provide you with comfort now and in the days to come. Please contact me if you would like to discuss this wonderful promise.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ To the family I offer my most sincere sympathy for your loss. May our loving heavenly father continue to comfort and strengthen you as you go on living life without your loved one. When we lose a family member it's like a piece of a wonderful puzzle is missing, but when Jehovah God restore life back to our loved ones in the resurrection; that puzzle will be put completely back together again. Jehovah God has entrusted the resurrection of millions to his son Christ Jesus. This is why John 5:28,29 tells us "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out; those who did good things to a resurrection of life." Rest assured that all that God promises will come true, because he always fulfills his word. Isaiah 55,11##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##
