“ Oh my Sister! I can't tell you how deeply sad, to discover your passing through my search to locate you. My condolences to your parents, husband Donald and family. We were each other's rock until life took us in different directions! Forgive me for not staying in touch sooner! Will always have you in spirit and my heart!

“ The energy of a big sister is what you gave me and I love how you loved yourself and others. I'm going to miss our conversations and how you would set me straight or just listen. Sleep in peace my friend until we meet again.

We give our expressions of sympathy to the Allen family from the Burns family.

“ *From the time we moved into the Westover South SubDivision “Lecia was always a friend. From trying to play Basketball at Westover Rec center to playing softball with the neighborhood moms Lecia was always there. Of course life happens and you go your separate ways, but when we saw each other it was just as though nothing changed. To her husband, Ms. Lucy & John Jr, my deepest condolences are with you. Lecia- Rest In Peace my dear friend.

“ Lecia, I will miss our long talks about any and everything. Although they weren't as often as we'd both like; we never missed a beat when we linked. I love you and I'll continue loving on those closest to you. Praying for strength and comfort for Ms Lucy, John Jr and the girls.
