

Aleen Dates

August 25, 1935 - October 13, 2010

August 25, 1935 was a wonderful day in the city of Vincent, Alabama; It was like no other day made by God because it was the day of Aleen's debut into the world and into the loving arms of her parents, the Brooks and Ana Lee Hamilton- Williams. She was the oldest of three children; her brother Elzee Tyrone Williams, preceded death, but she survived by her sister, Mrs. Mary Hudson of Chester, P.A.

Aleen graduated from Chester Senior High School in Chester, P.A in 1955. She retired as a Medical Unit Clinic from Johns Hopkins Hospital in 1997, but was not able to retire from her second career. She could not leave the position as a high powered professional in the most important job of all, which was titled "mom" She devoted over fifty-five years to her children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, adopted children, foster children and to other family members and friends. We honor her and celebrate her life; a life filled with nurturing, provision and protection.

October 13, 2010 was a very triumphant day because it was the day that the Lord God called her home to rest and dwell with him. We salute and celebrate her life, the one affectionately known to all as "Gramps" We bestow upon her a medal of Honor for the continuous sacrifice made for other and because we hold her high regard as The Best of the Best Moms."

We celebrate her life and cherish the memories of our beloved mom. Her oldest Child, Shirley Martin, preceded her in death. The six remaining children are Betty Price, Michael Chesson, Brenda Frederick, Jacqueline Johnson, Leslie Dates, and Jamesetta Howard; two adopted sons, Davon and Kevin Dates; Sixteen grandchildren: Lamont Marvin Tyson, Jr., Latoya Dates, Shannon Gardner, Daphne Johnson-Lyles, Sean Gardner, Emmanuel Tyson, Tiffany Tyson, Corey Gardner, and Gabrille Howard; Twenty two great grandchildren; a great niece and nephew Keyonna Hudson and James Warren; and a host of other relatives and friends.
