Life and Legacy of Alesia Renee Kilgore

In my Father's House are many mansions; if it were not so,
I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. John 14:2
"Then he said, Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.
Some manuscripts come with your kingly power. Jesus answered him, truly I tell you, today you will be with me in paradise."
Luke 23:42-43 NIV

Our beloved Alesia Renee Kilgore was born May 22, 1986 in Fredericksburg, Virginia to Howard Kilgore and Brenda Kilgore.

Alesia received her formal education at VCU in Richmond, Virginia. She accepted Christ and was united with Saint Paul's Baptist Church. As a member, she enjoyed going to church and serving her Lord, under the leadership of Dr. Lance Watson. She never met a stranger, her love for Christ spilled over on everyone, including relatives and friends.

She enjoyed reading, love of fashion, watching Golden Girls, cooking and baking. Her many enjoyable moments were when she would go and visit Texas. Alesia was very ambitious and determined to be successful at whatever she started. She had a very kind and peaceful soul. The life of Aleisa will leave a lasting impression on the lives of many people she touched with her gentle spirit and glorious smile.

Alesia is preceded in death by her brother, Aaron Kilgore; grandparents, Manning Kilgore, Florence Kilgore, Calvin Childs, James and Eva Hunter; great-grandparents, Pauline and James Young; uncle, Boyce Kilgore and beloved fur-baby, Rockie.

She is resting from her labor in her new mansion with a garden that we can only imagine, streets paved with gold and she is in the presence of the one she loves the most, her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

On April 21, 2021, Alesia took her last breath peacefully and the Lord called her to have eternal life. She leaves to cherish her memory Howard, Brenda, Brittanni, Brian, Annie Childs, Cheryl Samuel, Janice Kilgore, Shirley Satterwhite, Evelyn Harris, Tommy Kilgore and Ben Kilgore; other relatives and friends.

Precious memories will never be forgotten.
