

Aletha Colbert

July 20, 1948 - September 5, 2022

Aletha was born in the city of Baltimore to Raymond and Emma Holt on July 20, 1948. She was the oldest female of her eight siblings.

After Aletha graduated from Frederick Douglass High School, she continued her education. She graduated from Community College of Baltimore, matriculated through Morgan State College (University) before transferring to Indiana University and graduating with a Bachelor of Science in Elementary Education. She also matriculated through Wayne State University, majoring in Special Education.

Aletha met Barry Colbert during the early 1970's. After dating for some time, they married in May 1975. They moved to Michigan and eventually started to grow their family with the addition of Christopher and Jessica.

Aletha loved teaching. She taught elementary students in Michigan, Illinois, Georgia, and Maryland. Additionally, she loved all types of music. Her favorite was Country music. She enjoyed reading mystery novels, watching English comedies, going to see the latest movies, and talking on the phone with family and longtime friends. She was outgoing and friendly and easily made friends.

Aletha departed this life peacefully in her sleep on September 5, 2022 at her home in Maryland. Preceding her death were her mother, Emma; father, Raymond; sister, Patricia; brother-in-law, Robert; niece, Kelli Kensie; and uncle, Ernest Dargan. She leaves to mourn her loss her loving husband, Barry; son, Christopher; daughter, Jessica; Sterling Holt (Bonnie), Sheila Oliver (Victor), Marsha Vice (Albert), Cynthia Kensie, Steven Holt and a host of nieces and nephews. Her loss will be felt by many more.
