

Alex Donell Sims

March 5, 1963 - March 28, 2010

ALEX D. SIMS SR. was born on March 5, 1963 to Shirley Sims and the late James Lee Sims. He received his education in Baltimore City Public Schools and held various jobs throughout his lifetime. Alex was affectionately known to family and friends as "Joe." He was well known and loved by everyone he came in contact with. He had several talents which included fixing cars and drawing, but his greatest talent of all was singing. His voice was his gift from God, which brought smiles to everyone's face. God called him home on March 28, 2010 to join his beloved father James Lee Sr. and his three older brothers, Arvell, James and Melvin whom all preceded him in death. Alex will truly be missed, leaving behind to mourn: four daughters, La-Tonya, Latanya, Alexis and Asha; son, Alex Jr.; grandson, Tyreik; his mother, Shirley Sims; four sisters, Carolyn, Shirley, Laverne and Annette; brother, Thomas Burnell; his long time love, Wanda Anderson; thirty-five nieces and nephews, many great-nieces and -nephews and a host of other relatives and friends who will truly, completely miss him.

Tribute Wall

“ Alex Donell Sims

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM