

Alex Stroud

October 15, 1900 - December 9, 2002

Mr. Alex Stroud, son of the late Bertha and Ben Stroud, was born December 31, 1934 in Chester, South Carolina. Mr. Stroud was educated in Chester, South Carolina. He relocated to Baltimore, Maryland in 1954. He worked and retired from United Recycle. He met and married Emma Lee Barnett in 1955. Out of this union, one daughter was born, Lynette Stroud. He remarried in 1966 to Ida Stroud. He had one stepson, Jerome Leggette. He met Harriet Conion in 1990, his loving companion who was with him until his departure on December 2002. He leaves to mourn: his brother, Ben Jr. Stroud; his aunt, Florie Brisbane; his daughter, Lynette; six grandchildren, Jermaine, Shawnanda, David, Daric, Keisha and Ashley; six great-grandchildren, stepson, Jerome, wife, Ida; devoted friend, Harriet; and a host of other relatives and friends. Dear Granddad, just a note to let you know, we're glad God blessed us with a loving, devoted grandfather like yourself. You were always there when we were in need; always did a good deed. Granddad you will be missed in every way and never forgotten. We all know you are in a better place at peace. So rest on Granddad we know you are all right, and we're all right too. Lovingly submitted, Your Grandchildren

“ The richness of the human experience is in what is handed down from one life to the next –not simple things of mortar and stone, but memories of what one said or felt or did. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
