

Alex T. Scott

April 12, 1979 - September 17, 2002

Alex Troy Scott, "Troy" as he was lovingly called was the son of the late Alphonso Craft and Lucretia Scott-Craft and the brother of the late Donjuan. He received his education through the Baltimore City Public Schools. Troy was a big kid at heart. He was very playful, a very happy young man and sometimes serious (smile). He loved his family very much and his family loved him. Corporate Planned Staffing employed him. Troy loved playing sports, but was limited. His presence will surely be missed by all that knew and loved him. He is survived by: his brothers, Walter, Wayne, Antoine and George; sisters, Alecia, Lucretia, Toi and Joi; grandmothers, Doris McCray and Florence Craft; great-grandmother, Gertrude Scott; nephews, Tavon, James and Daquan; nine aunts, nine uncles, and a host of cousins and friends, including a special friend, Felicia Dorsey. He was preceded in death by his parents, Alphonso Craft and Lucretia Scott-Craft; and grandfathers, James McCall and Cornelius Craft “ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much.###imported-begin###The March Family and Staff###imported-end###
