September 2, 1924 - December 11, 2001

On December 11, 2001, our beloved Alexander J. Giles, humbly and peacefully answered to the tender call of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Alexander J. Giles, also affectionately known as “Alex”, was born in Baltimore on September 2, 1924 to the late Jessie and Blanche Giles. He was baptized at an early age at Mount Hebron Baptist Church in Baltimore. Alex recently joined and became a member of Wayland Baptist Church until his departure from this earth. Alex graduated from Douglas High School and served in the Korean War and World War II. He received an honorable discharge from the United States Navy. It was in Baltimore that he met and married his soul mate, the late Gloria Deloris Curtis. Alex was employed at Bethlehem Steel at Sparrows Point. An avid believer in education, he furthered his studies while working at Bethlehem Steel. He was later promoted to Assistant General Manager. After nearly 40 years of dedicated employment, Alex retired at the age of 57. He enjoyed traveling, photography and entertaining his family and friends. Everyone who knew him will sincerely miss Alex. He leaves to cherish his memory: his loving and devoted daughter, Gloria Gwen Wells; son-in-law, Ronald A.
