

Alexander Kearney

January 1, 1942 - January 4, 2012

ALEXANDRER "BIG JIM" KEARNEY was born to Moses Kearney, Sr. and Addie Alston-Kearney, on January 1, 1942 in Littleton, North Carolina. He departed this life on Wednesday., January 4, 2012 after a lengthy illness at the Young at Heart Assisting Living in Joppa, Maryland.

Alexander received his education at Goldmine School in Littleton, North Carolina. He left North Carolina to start his new life in Baltimore, Maryland, where he obtained employment at the Maryland Pump Tank Company. He worked there until his retirement.

He was known as a witty man who always expressed "joy and willingness" to give and loved his family deeply. He was well known by many people, and made friends wherever he went. He was a very loyal friend to all and devoted family man!

He was a Gentle Giant in his own way, and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him.

He leaves to mourn: his son, Jerome Kearney; his sisters, Margaret Kearney, Bettie Kearney-Simms, Lottie Kearney-Potts and Winnie Kearney; one brother, Willis Kearney; and aunt, Beulah Mae Williams, uncles, Robert Alston and James Edward Alston; a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Moses and Addie Kearney; two siblings, Moses Kearney Jr. and Dorothy Mae Kearney-Williams.

“ My condolences to the family on the loss of your loved one. (Psalms 34:18)

M. Johnson - January 08, 2012 at 06:14 PM

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

Ms Springer - January 07, 2012 at 05:20 AM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
