

Alexander S. Ramsawak

July 5, 1995 - December 1, 2017

ALEXANDER SAMUEL RAMSAWAK was born on July 5, 1995. At the vibrant age of 22, his heavenly father saw that his body needed rest so He called Him home to December 1, 2017.

He grew up in Baltimore and later moved to Pennsylvania where he graduated from high school and Trade school. In 2015 he obtained his Bachelor's Degree in Architectural Engineering until his demise.

From the time he made his first appearance, he filled our hearts with smiles and richness. This man of few words who spent so little time with us, so precious yet his smile spoke most.

Alexander was a hardworking son, brother, caring father and loving fiancée. He loved fishing, producing music, and motor bike riding. An avid biker, he enjoyed riding with both fathers, Gilbert and Mitchell, uncle Ghose (deceased), cousins, dear friend Donnie and others.

He is survived by: his parents, Gilbert and Laura Thomas, and Mitchell Ramsawak; his daughter Alezia; adoring brother Christyan; and two other siblings; grandparents, Raymond and Laurine Talley; loving fiancée, Analicia Archibald; dear aunts, Michelle Harrypersad, Glorine Rice and Maureen Lakshman; and a host of many uncles, aunts, cousins and friends from Baltimore, Canada and Trinidad.
