“ My deepest sympathy to you and your family on the recent death of your dear loved one, Mr. Brown. Death is a tragedy that touches all of lives sooner or later. It's so very hard to bear But our heavenly father knows the pain we feel when we lose someone we love in death. So he has purposed to end death in the earth in the very near future under his heavenly kingdom. Instead of tears of pain, we will be shedding tears of joy as we welcome our loved ones back from the grave. Acts 24:15 tells us that there is going to be a ressurection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. So all will have a chance to live again, not in this world as it is now, but in a beautiful new world under peaceful conditions. I hope God's promises comfort you as well as your wonderful memories.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

“ I know Mr.Alexander Browne will be sorely missed. As Jesus said concerning Laz'arus when he died, "Lazarus our friend had gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from sleep,"-John 11:11, so also the same hope for Mr.Browne lies ahead. A ressurection, or a bringing back to life our dear beloved ones, means that for now, they will be asleep only but for a short while. My deepest sympathy and love.##imported-begin##A.
