“ I am very sorry to learn of your loss of a family member Alexis to death. I am sure that this must have been a very difficult time for your family. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. That was true when Moses wrote it, but that was not so from the beginning. (compare Geneis 5:3-32. Hebrews 9:27 says, It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written. But it was not the case before God passed judgment on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ I'm so sorry to learn of your recent loss. The loss of a loved one is truly a hard blow for a family to deal with, and I hope that you find the comfort and strength that you need to help you to cope. Please read these wonderful scriptures when you are feeling sad. Rev 21:4 says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more; neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away." Also Isaiah 25:8 lets us know that Jehovah will swallow up death forever." Imagine a world without sickness or death. Also John 5:28,29 lets us know that the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus"s voice) and come out." So soon the dead will be ressurected back to a happy and secure life in paradise conditions. Can we put trust in these promises? Yes we can, because we have a heavenly father who the bible speaks of as a God who cannot lie. Heb 6:18; a God who is a fullfiller of his promises according to Isaiah 55:10,11. May your memories of Alexis be a great source of comfort to you as well.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
