

Alfred B. Murphy

September 2, 1930 - August 31, 2009

Alfred B. Murphy, son of the late John Frances and Cecila Murphy, was born on September 2, 1930 in Baltimore, Maryland. Alfred was one of ten children. He departed this life on August 31, 2009 after a brief illness. He received his education at Dunbar Senior High School in Baltimore. Alfred served as Staff Sergeant in the United States Air Force from 1950-1954. He was employed with Baltimore Gas & Electric Company for twenty-seven years. Upon his retirement he spent most of his time at The Oliver Senior Center. In December 1952, he united in marriage with the late and former Ida Mae Curbean. From that union four children were born, Kenneth, Arnold, Andrea and Brian. Alfred gave his life to Christ and was an active choir member of St. Joseph Freewill Baptist Church. He always wore a smile and loved to socialize with his many friends and family. He will be sincerely missed. He leaves to mourn; his two sons, Arnold and Brian and five grandchildren; three sisters, Mrs. Christine McGuire, Mrs. Dorothy Chambers, Mrs. Audrey Randall, two daughters-in-law, a devoted cousin, Mr. Wilbert Wells; a loving niece, Terry Payne and a host of family and dear friends.
