“ Christian Family, times like these remind us even more how dear we are to each other. I could see his strength but also the love and pride he had for his family. I admired your mom and dad for showing you love, strength and faith. You all have that glue that will keep you together and faith in God to know that he is ever with you. I send you my love and prayers of condolences

“ The Hathaway family's thoughts and prayers are with Brother Alfred Christian's family as you celebrate his wonderful life with us and his new life in heaven. We often hear people say, "He was a good man." Well, Brother Alfred truly was and is a Good Man. His life of commitment to God, his family, his church, and his community is a true testament to the life he lived. Family, you have not lost Brother Alfred; he has simply responded to the call of the Master to come home and live eternally in his mansion in heaven.
