

Alfred Dorsey

February 12, 1925 - May 1, 2002

Alfred Dorsey, the son of the late Howard and Annie Dorsey, was born on February 12, 1925 in Baltimore, MD. He was called to rest on May 1, 2002 after a brief illness. Alfred, known as “Shelly” to all, received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He was drafted into the United States Army in 1943 in which he served three years. During that time, he fought in World War II and received The World War Victory Ribbon, Good Conduct medal, American Theatre Ribbon and the European African Middle Eastern Theatre Ribbon. After which he worked for the Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company Warehouse until his retirement. In 1953, Shelly met Mary “Bernice” Reddick. From this union four children were born Charlotte, Kenny, the late Douglas Smith and the late Alfred Jr. Shelly was a hard worker at everything he did. He was sincerely dedicated to his family. He went to great lengths to make his family and friends welcomed and loved. He loved watching sports and spending time with his wife. You could always find Shelly doing busy work around the house. From peeling potatoes to fixing the porch, Shelly was always helping. Shelly’s favorite saying was “One day at a time”. He leaves to cherish his loving memory: his wife, Mary Bernice Dorsey, one daughter, Charlotte, one son, Kenny, three brothers, Sam, Lee and Frank; one sister, Elsie Simms; one daughter-in-law, Terry; six grandchildren, Wade, Demarco, Richard, Eno, Douglas Jr. and Angellette, two adoptive grandchildren, Corey and Dominique, two great grandchildren, Nkenge and Naheema, brother-in-laws, sister-in-laws and a host of family and friends.
