

Alfred George Gamble

January 5, 1936 - April 18, 2009

Alfred George Gamble (Sonnie), son of the late Blanche and George Gambe, was born on January 5, 1936 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on Saturday, April 18, 2009 after a short illness. Sonnie, as he was called by so many who knew and loved him, received his education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. He married Jacqueline Washington on December 26, 1951. Out of this union was born one daughter, Vanessa (Gamble) McDaniels. Sonnie loved and accepted as his own children, Michelle Dukes and Gregory Day. Sonnie joined the United States Air Force in 1953. Upon completion of his military obligation, he worked at NSA (National Security Agency) in Fort Meade, Maryland. Sonnie later transferred to the U.S. Postal Service where he remained until he retired. Sonnie was a great lover of racehorses and loved eating crabs. He was well-liked and had many, many friends. Although he and Jacqueline were divorced, they remained very good friends. Sonnie leaves to mourn his passing: his daughter, Michelle Dukes and son, Gregory Day; ex-wife and friend, Jacqueline Washington; son-in-law, Melvin Dukes; five grandchildren, Kim, Tim, Gerard, Robin, and Gregory Jr.; six great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandson; sister-in-law, Faith Bazemore; brother-in-law, Eddie Bazemore; lifelong especially good friends (like brothers), Leon Smith, Ronald Smith and Milburn Woodland; very good friends, Uncle Witts, Bobby Anderson and Earl Jones; nieces, nephews, and a host of relatives and friends.
