

Alfred Hoover Thompson

July 16, 1928 - February 16, 2009

Quietly, after a prolonged illness, ALFRED HOOVER THOMPSON departed this life on February 16, 2009. He was born on July 16, 1928 to the late James Thompson and his wife, Estella McKellar Thompson in McDonald, North Carolina. He was the youngest of six children. Al received his formal education in McDonald and graduated from Rosenwald High School in Fairmount, North Carolina. He received a Bachelor of Science degree in Industrial Education from North Carolina A&T where he was a member of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity. He was a veteran of the Korean War Era and a Mason, belonging to the King of Tyre Lodge #23. Al relocated to the Baltimore area and was employed by the Mass Transit Administration until he retired some years ago. While at MTA he was a staunch union member. Al was known and loved throughout his community. He will be especially remembered for his meticulously trimmed gardens and vibrant flower boxes. He was known to lend his technical expertise as a handy man whenever asked. He gave generously to numerous charities. Al leaves to celebrate his home going and cherish his memory: two sons, Stephen and Alfred Thompson (Nicole) of Baltimore, Md.; one sister, Theresa a Jones also of Baltimore; four grandchildren, MaJene Boyer, Alvante, Aurora and Asa Thompson; a devoted niece, Deloris Floyd of Charlotte, N.C.; sister-in-law, Ethel Thompson; devoted special friend, Margaret Dupree; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friend and neighbors.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. Death is such an unnatural occurrence because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl 3:11). Fortunately, the Bible holds out the promise of a resurrection (John 5:28-29, Acts 24:15) to perfect life on a paradise earth (Psalm 37:11,29). May you find solace in Jehovah the God of all comfort (2Cor 1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm 55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "there is going to be a resurrection". Also, 1 Corinthians 15:26 lovingly reveals that Almighty God is going to destroy our enemy death. May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##
