“ I send my sincere sympathy for your loss. I am so sorry that your loved one died. One day soon all sickness, sorrow, and death will be a thing of the past, because Rev 21:4 says that God will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more; neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away. May you be comforted by this wonderful promise.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the Family, Please accept my condolences for your loved one. We can always receive comfort from the scriptures. Isa 26:19, "...your dead ones will live... they will rise up." And 1 Cor 15:26 which tells us that God is going to remove our enemy death. May these scriptures comfort and give you the strength you need at this time.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

“ I wish to extend my heartfelt condolences to you for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "There is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful resurrection hope. And may you draw closer to the ones responsible for it: Jehovah God and his only-begotten son Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ I would like to convey my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those in the memorial tombs will come out by means of a resurrection (John5:28-29) to life on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). May you find solace in the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
