

Alfred White

May 1, 1963 - September 18, 2022

Alfred White was born on May 1, 1963 in Bridgeport, Connecticut . His family made Richmond, Virginia their home when he was a young child. On September 18, 2022, Alford entered into enteral rest at Chippenham Hospital surround by love.

Alfred was baptized and became a member of Mt. Olive Baptist Church in Richmond, VA. He attended George Wythe High School and remained friends with many of his classmates. Al had several nicknames, each one connected to how you can to know him. His siblings and family in Louisiana called him Jun; his classmates called him Luther and Lou; and his customers from Willies Records called him Mo` Jazz. All had a bright smile and loved to meet and talk to people everywhere that he went.

Al worked many years for Thalhimers Department Stores in the warehouse before they closed. He later retired from HCA Healthcare after 21 years as a customer service representative due to failing health. Al would say that his favorite job of all was his part-time job at Willies Records and Tapes at Southside Plaza. This job gave him a chance to be surrounded by his favorite thing-music. As an avid lover of jazz, Alfred always had a concert on the calendar and a camera in-hand to meet his favorite musicians. He was eager to introduce his family and friends to new music or his old favorite. Just like his license plate said, he always had "mo` jazz" to share. Al was also s lifelong professional wrestling fan. He had a collection of documentaries, books, and signed pictures of his favorite wrestlers. Over the years, he attended many wrestling events and kept and kept up to date with the rookies and veterans in the ring. He loved to call himself a wrestling mark and had conversations about it with anyone who was interested or sat long enough to listen (ask his girls)! His sports team was the new England Patriots and Al especially loved to tease the local Washington and Dallas football fans.

He was preceded in death by his mother: Thelma Jean White; his father William "Frank" White; and sister: Beatrice Jackson. He leaves to cherish fond memories-loving companion: Pauletta Ruffin of Chesterfield, Virginia; two daughters: Ashley White of Harlem ,New York and Maya Ruffin of Fairfax, Virginia; mother-in-love: Pauline Ruffin of Chesterfield, Virginia; sister: Debra White of White Castle, Louisiana; brother: Jerome Johnson of Richmond, Virginia; two uncles: Charles Williams (Inett) of Port Allen, Louisiana ; and Edward Williams (Lydia) of Baton Rouge, Louisiana; niece: Bia Jackson of Atlanta, Georgia; two nephews: Isaiah White of White Castle, Louisiana; and Jerome Womack of Richmond, Va.; special friends : David and Cheryl Capeheart of Chesterfield, Virginia; and a host of beloved friends and relatives.
