

Alfreda B. Keene

January 29, 1981 - June 2, 2011

ALFREDA BURTRINA KEENE, daughter of Edward Keene, Sr and Sylvia Welles was born on January 29, 1981 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on June 2, 2001, after a lengthy illness.

Alfreda, affectionately known as Trina, Received her education at Harbor City High School in Baltimore, Maryland. At the age of seventeen she graduated to exceed her dreams. She attended church but she mainly read Joyce Myers and looked up scriptures.

At the age of eighteen, Alfreda became employed at Holiday Inn Express where she was trained for housekeeping. She stayed there for a good while until something better came along.

Alfreda always kept you laughing at her. She was loved everywhere she went. When and if you were down she would say, " I'm here for you, you smell-me" or " You flicker- deal me".

She never married, She had no children, but she adopted Tameica's children. She joins her father, Edward Keene, Sr and sister, Terra Simmons in death..

She leaves behind: her mother, Sylvia; brother, Edward Jr.; sisters Tameica and Carnella; stepbrother, Dinky; nieces and nephews, MOO-Moo, Valerie, Alaina, Tavieya, Mark, Antonio, Antwan and Anthony; cousin, Tiny, Christina, Debbie, Rain and Connor; aunts, Jackie, Michelle and Ernestine; Uncles, Jerome and Victor Wells; Friends, Kim, Na-Na, Thomas, Bootie and Jerome. She also leaves other aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives and friends. There were so many whom loved her they couldn't be named, but you know who you are.

“ To the family: Please accept my sincere condolences for the lost of your dear loved one. It is during times like these that we can find comfort in God’s word such as the scripture at 1 Corinthians verses 26, 54, 55 where it assures us that soon “the last enemy, death,” is to be removed. Then the foretold words will come true: “Death is swallowed up forever. Death, where is your victory? Death, where is your sting?”
