

Algie M. Rowlett

January 18, 1951 - April 1, 2019

Algie “Al” Rowlett born to the late Earl and Beatrice Rowlett on January 18, 1951 in Baltimore, MD. On Monday April 1st of 2019 Algie “Al” was called home after a lengthy illness. He fought a strong and long battle until he couldn’t fight any longer.

Algie was educated in the Baltimore City School System. He worked as a shift manager at Glidden Durkee Scm Paint Company for 15 years and moved on to being a production assistant at FMC Agricultural Chemical Company for two years until he had to retire because of health problems.

Algie “Al” was loved by everyone. He had one of the greatest sense of humor known. This humor of his kept not just his family in stitches but the doctor and nurses found him to be of a great joy to serve him in his over extended stay in the hospital. They couldn’t wait to get to work just so he could put a smile on their face. He loved his family and friends and there was nothing he wouldn’t do for them. He loved life and lived it the best way he knew how. He enjoyed being a grandfather to his grandkids. His favorite team was the RAVENS and boy did he love them. He also had a special relationship with his sister Jackie that he named his favorite cat after her. He called him “JACK”. He said the cat reminded him of her. LOL One of his famous lines when asked every year “What’s your New Year resolution?” he replied “to be a better man than I was last year”, and he did just that Lived His Best Life. Al will truly be missed and was loved by all.

Algie was preceded in death by two brothers, Roquee and Wayne Rowlett.

Algie leaves to cherish his memories: Wanda Stanley (fiancé); daughter, Renee Allen Thompson (Reginald); four sons, Jason Rowlett, Damon Rowlett, Aaron Rowlett and Keith Dickens; four sisters, Earlene De Young (Raymond), Jacqueline Rowlett, Lanae Snowden (Gregory), and Marletia Rowlett-Smith; sixteen grandchildren, 3 great grandchildren; brother, William Rowlett (Debbie); and a host of nephews, nieces, other relatives and friends.
