

Alice Blount

October 2, 1912 - March 15, 2004

God is in control, Believe that and don't be sad, I am no longer in pain, For that, please be glad. I fought long and hard, But now I need rest, Please don't weep, This was for the best. It was not an accident that on October 2, 1912 in Pitt County, North Carolina, Alice was born to Clayton and Clara Streeter. God had an amazing plan for Alice, which meant His generosity, would flow through her, by loving her family. She was the oldest of fourteen children and spent a lifetime loving eight brothers and five sisters. She went to school in Farmville, North Carolina where she met and married Gus Blunt in October 1934. Later, she moved to Baltimore, Maryland where she continued to make an everlasting impact on her family. Alice did domestic work for many years for prominent families until she retired at the age of seventy-two. Alice Blount loved life. In her younger years, she attended many churches enjoying the Word and gospel music. She had a beautiful sense of humor and enjoyed having family and friends around laughing and talking. On March 15, 2004, like a candle in the wind, the Angels came to carry her to her Father in Heaven. She leaves to cherish her memory: three sisters, Clara Carmon of Durham, North Carolina, Ruth Cumming (William) of Greenville, North Carolina and Grace Redmond (Sidney) of Baltimore, Maryland; two devoted nieces, Janice Streeter of Brooklyn, New York and Nevie White of Baltimore, Maryland; a long time help-mate, Pansy Wilson; devoted neighbor, Dave Bowley; a host of other relatives and friends. Aunt Alice often said she' outlived most of her

“ To the family of Alice Blount, Please accept my condolences. It is truly a sad time when you loss a loved one. During this difficult the scriptures can be helpful. God promises to redeem or resurrect our loved ones from Sheol the grave. Notice the promises at Hosea 13:14 "From the hand of Sheol I shall redeem them; from death I shall recover them. Where are your stings, O Death? Where is your destructiveness, O'Sheol...?" I hope the family can draw comfort from these words.##imported-begin##V. Adams##imported-end##

“ My condolence to the family. May you be comforted by the loving promise found at John 5:28,29- "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life". It is my hope that these words give you much needed strength in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
