

Alice E. Faulcon

September 13, 1925 - March 1, 2014

ALICE E. FAULCON, daughter of the late Horace and Ella Whitworth, Sr. and wife of the late Mack Faulcon, was born on September 13, 1925 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on March 1, 2014.

She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She was a housewife. Although Alice did not have any natural children, she opened her heart and home to many children. Alice welcomed foster children, day care children, and college students into her home. From this she had many children who fondly called her "Mom."

She was lifelong member of the Faith Baptist Church. Alice had a love for the Word of God and loved to sing hymns.

On February 8, 1942, Alice married the love of her life, Mack L. Faulcon, who preceded her in death. Alice was loved by everyone who came in contact with her.

She leaves to cherish her memory: two nephews, James W. (Lucy) and Warren (Tiny) Whitworth; two nieces, Teresa Clark and Seresa Curtis; three great-nephews, Paul (Patricia) Valentine, Tony (Margaret) Valentine and Michael (Gisele) Valentine; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

God saw the road was getting rough,
And He did what He thought was best.
He put His arms around her,
And whispered, "Come Here To Rest."
It broke our hearts to lose her
But she did not go alone,
For part of us went with her,
The day God called her home.

Lovingly, submitted
The Family

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few find the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32. It is of vital importance to learn what the Bible really teaches concerning death. For more information please visit the website jw.org.

“ Our family would like to express condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He assures a resurrection for our dear loved ones on a restored Beautiful Paradise Earth. Also, in 1 Corinthians 15:26 He even promises that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.
