

Alice Fowlkes

June 3, 1934 - December 19, 2018

ALICE ODEN FOWLKES, daughter of the late Lott Brown and Lucille Grushion, born on June 3, 1934. She gently slipped away from this life on December 19, 2018 after a lengthy illness.

She received her education in Baltimore City Public School. In later years she went back to school where she received her Nursing Assistant at North Charles General Hospital until her retirement.

She was a faithful member at Faith Evangelical Lutheran Church for thirty-five years where she served on the Vestry and soup Kitchen Ministry.

Alice, also know as Al by family and friends, was known for cooking as well as baking cakes, pies and her frozen cups. In and around the neighborhood she was known as the frozen cup lady. She enjoyed singing, traveling and most of all, being around family.

She was preceded in death her husband

James fowlkes, son Wayne Sparks, daughter Alice Green, two grandsons, five sisters and four brothers.

She leaves to cherish her memory: five daughters, Doris sparks, jeanette Sparks, Robin Murray, Jayne Noble and Cheryl Murray; a son-in-law, two granddaughters-in-law, a grandson-in-law, three great-great-daughters-in-law, 20 grandchildren, 44 great-grands, 19 great-great-great grands, and a host of nieces, nephews and friends. She also leaves to cherish her memory her dear friend and companion William Wilmer (Mr. Bill as we've all come to know him)
