

Alice Goodman

January 1, 1931 - July 17, 2018

ALICE GOODMAN, (87), was born to the late Charles Goodman and Mary Washington on January 1, 1931 in Baltimore, Maryland where she also peacefully passed away under brief hospice care on July 17, 2018.

At a very young age, Alice took an early role in helping to care for her younger siblings; a brother with special needs; and later in life, her elderly mother.

She loved family and friends, especially babies and children. As an adult, Alice worked in and excelled in the food and restaurant business. Her skills were most excellent in the preparation of seafood. She was once recognized on TV for being responsible for Thompson's Seafood Restaurant becoming a grand prize winner in Maryland Crab Cake contest.

Alice enjoyed watching TV, having a great fish dinner every Friday, talking to family, and engaging in rigorous debates. She and her brother, Melvin, have always lived in close proximity and supported each other through many years. Alice had a quick wit and took pride in being the seventh child as she would often say, "The seventh child is either wise or a fool." she would tell anyone that she was no fool!

Although Alice never married or had children of her own, she could be seen by many as a mother to all; and was ready to offer a meal to a few dollars to anyone in need. Alice put God before all else. Her faith was strong and unwavering.

Alice is preceded in death by 10 siblings. She is survived by brothers and sisters, Melvin, Elijah, Albert, Leonard(Brenda), Doretha, Gloria, Naomi Ruth (Bernard); and sister in law, Catherine (Iena) Goodman. She also leaves behind to cherish her memory; her niece, Alice (Renee) Goodman- Tolson; nephews, Kevin Foxworth and Wilburn Lloyd Foxworth, Jr.; in addition to a host of many other relatives and friends.
