

Alice Hagler

June 29, 1950 - November 23, 2014

No obituary found for this tribute.

Cemetery Details

Ft. Lincoln Cemetery

Bladensburg, MD

Previous Events

viewing

DEC 14. 2:00 PM - 6:00 PM (ET)

March Funeral Homes - East Baltimore
1101 East North Avenue
Baltimore, MD 21202
(410) 727-3300
info@marchfh.com

Wake

DEC 15. 10:00 AM - 11:00 AM (ET)

The City Sanctuary
6312 Clinton Way
Clinton, MD 20735

Service

DEC 15. 11:00 AM (ET)

The City Sanctuary
6312 Clinton Way
Clinton, MD 20735

Tribute Wall

“ Alice Hagler

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Please accept my deepest sympathies. May you find comfort in the Holy Scriptures, your family and friends.

We can understand the pain and sense of loss can be severe when it comes to losing a dear love one. Even in the face of a personal loss, we can be confident that God is not unrighteous. Psalms 145:16-19 says “You (God) open your hand and satisfy the desire of every living thing. Jehovah is righteous in all his ways and loyal in all that he does. Jehovah is near to all those calling on him. To all who call on him in truth. He satisfies the desire of those who fear him, He hears their cry for help, and he rescues them.”

When we lack sufficient strength to bear the death of a love one, God will up hold you. God will continue to give you support as you turn to him in prayer. You are never alone. You can always turn to the Holy Bible for comfort as you read the scriptures. Recovering from grief may take months, a few years, or even longer. Just remember the acute pain you feel in the beginning will lessen in time and life will gradually seem less bleak and meaningless. There is an empty space where before there was a living human. Cry as long as you need to, repressing your grief can be harmful mentally, emotionally, and physically. Like a suffocating envelopment - a blanket - death can weigh heavily on mankind.

The bible clears up any questions we might have about death. Our love ones are not suffering. But you may still wonder, why would a God of love allow our love one to die? First we need to know how suffering got started. God has made provision to end all suffering and death. God can and will undo all the harm that came upon you and your family. God is not the one who is causing the suffering of our love one but by means of Jesus Christ, God will raise the dead, heal obedient ones of all their illnesses, root out every trace of sin, and even cause former grief to fade from our mind. Isaiah 65:17 “For I am creating new heavens and a new Earth, and the former things will not be called to mind, nor will they come up into the heart.” The suffering you experience today will not be called to mind. How do you feel about that?

May Jehovah God give you peace of mind and comfort.

Kathy Branch - December 25, 2014 at 12:05 PM

“ *My eyes filled up with tears as I heard the news
It never occurred to me, how much I could lose
I find myself wishing that it wasn't real
Every time I think about it, pain is all I can feel
Tears fall from my eyes, I can barely see
But my heart tells me that she'll always be with me
I'm glad she feels no pain now-she lives in a perfect place
I can still feel the soft touch on my shoulder of her loving hand
I lie in bed and cry at night
And I don't feel any better in the morning light
And I will love and miss her forever
Until the day we are again together.
Together in that perfect place above,
Filled with caring, sharing and love.
But until that day comes- I will wipe my tears away.
And hopefully see Alice again someday
RIP my Cousin
love always Helena*

Lena Six Grands - November 29, 2014 at 11:51 AM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.

March Funeral Homes - November 26, 2014 at 04:07 PM