

Alice Hampton

September 2, 1935 - April 24, 2004

Alice Lorraine Hampton, daughter of the late Francis and Odell Hughes (stepdaughter of Rose L. Hughes) was born on September 2, 1935 in Oxford, Pennsylvania. She departed this life on April 24, 2004. The Lord called Alice home to rest after seeing her suffer from medical complications. Alice was baptized at an early age at the Faith Baptist Church in East Baltimore. She received her education in Baltimore City public schools, and was a graduate from Dunbar High School. Alice was employed by American Building Maintenance as a supervisor for numerous years. Alice was a day-care provider up until the time of her illness. Alice, affectionately known as "Allie" to some, was a wonderful mother and grandmother. She was a feisty little one who enjoyed a good laugh. Alice made numerous friends in her lifetime and will be deeply missed by everyone. Mama loved to strike a pose for no specific reason. She was extremely talkative and could out talk the best. Alice loved her grandchildren and their love for her was equally the same. Alice leaves to cherish: five sons, Skip, Gene, Rodney, Kevin and Lloyd; five daughters, Debra, Donna, Roslyn, Sharon and Pam; one brother, Edward Henderson of Augusta, Georgia; five sisters, Virginia Martin, Nellie Mae Henderson, Florence Hughes, Doris Hughes and Josephine Eggleston of Baltimore (brother, William Henderson and sister, Elsie Henderson, both of Pennsylvania, preceded her in death); twenty grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, extended family and friends.

“ Well, it will be a year in a few months, but it seems just like yesterday. But I know we all have to travel this road someday, which isn't questionable. In knowing this, we will meet again. In closing, until we meet again I will always love you and miss you deeply. Not only did I lose my mother, I also lost the love of my life, my right hand girl. I think about you everyday and will always love you. In closing, I see you when I get there. Debbie##imported-begin##Debbie##imported-end##

“ It's raining today and I keep getting sad, off and on. Most of the time I'm alright because I don't have a lot of sad memories concerning you. I remeber the parades, the cookouts, picnics at Druid Hill Park, Traveling to Pennsylvania. Holidays were so fun when I was little because everyone would meet up at Mama's house. That's a real good memory. All of us would be together, eating, taking pictures, laughing and joking. Hey, I'm beginning to smile. Sometimes all I need is to think beyond the end of your time hear on earth and I do feel better. Just know the family is healing and we are even stronger. Much Love Always. “ Ma, your book has not been noted in some time but this doesn't mean that you aren't thought of everyday. Life goes on but the emptiness still remains the same. Your day of life (09/02) is nearing again and I continue to look at the pictures I took on your last birthday before your departure. You hated to smile but you had a beautiful, loving, unforgetful smile. My love for you will remain forever. Debbie###imported-begin###Debra A. Lyles (daughter)###imported-end###

“ It has been awhile since we last talked I know that you are in a better place. Things are not the same since you departed but we will survive. I hope one day that the family you left behind would somehow grow up and get there self together but the child in a bunch of them will not let them, so what we must do is stay to ourself and let things be. I love you and truly feel that you are in a better place god bless.###imported-begin###Gene###imported-end###

“ Just sitting here thinking how we take the little things for granted. No matter what the situation was I could always talk with you and whatever problems I had were not as bad as I thought they were. You would always say "stop worrying" and these two words coming from you always made it a little easier. Things are a little rough but I feel it in my heart that you still have my back. “ Well ma, all of the holidays have come and are just about gone. It's New Year's eve and all I can do is think about you, the days and nights without you appear to be getting a little easier but really they aren't. I talk to you alot and I imagine what you would say in certain situations and it helps some. I continue to fake my strength as you would have it no other way. With the new year coming in soon, it won't be the same. My first call at 12:00 a.m. was always to you, the line may had been busy because you were calling all of us but I always got through. It will be a year in about four months but it is still like yesterday. I will go to church, cry, think about you give praise for making it through another year. I know that you will be there with me as your spirit lives on. So, Happy New Year mama, I will love and miss you until the end of time.##imported-begin##Debra A. Lyles##imported-end##

“ I have my personal moments when it hits me hard the fact that you are really gone and it makes me sad. All of us children loved you in our own way and no one can judge how we showed that love. Some of the family fell apart after your departure but I'm sure it will pass because we are a good, strong family. We do love each and we are banded together through your genes but sometimes life is just so hard. I pray for all of us every day because we need it. Just missing you!!!###imported-begin##Sharon Woods (Daughter)##imported-end##

“ hey allie i love you and miss you very much.sometimes i miss you more than others like when you would fuss about much of nothing,but that would not stop you allie or when you would call me at work and tell me to bring you oranges.what i would do to hear you say that now.the day you left me you ask me to bring you some oranges i did not i gave them to my mother to give to you only because she said she was going over there and they were having a family meeting .only if i had known that was the time i would ever hear your voice again i would came running straight to you allie.still to this day i dont know if you ever recieve those oranges.i just want you to know i did get the oranges for you allie. i always did what you ask of me allie even if i didnt want to.i know you that ,that why you always ask.we had alot of good times together from the begining to the end.you have always been there giving me everything you had to offer from your time to your money,advice even when it was'nt wanted but most of important your love.i am just trying to deal without having right now.I LOVE YOU ALLIE!##imported-begin##monalisa##imported-end##

“ This is something that I read on a plaque and wanted to share with the family. It is called; The Broken Chain. We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name, in life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone; for part of us went with you, the day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide; and though we cannot see you, you are always at our side. Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same; but as God calls us one by one, the Chain will link again. Yes, the chain is broken but my love remains the same. May we unite as you knew we had which was the reason for the smile, cherish memories and honor your loving name. You are gone but your spirit lives on in us. May God bless our family in these times and all times.##imported-begin##Debra A. Lyles (daughter##imported-end##

“ WELL TODAY HAS BEEN VERY PRODUCTIVE. TODAY I GOT OUT OF BED AROUND 6 O'CLOCK WENT FOR A JOG BECAUSE I AM TRYING TO LOSE THIRTY-THIRTY FIVE POUNDS BY JAN.BY ANY MEANS .I BELIEVE I CAN DO IT AND THAT 'S ALL THAT MATTERS. YESTERDAY I SAW THE WORST THING I HAVE EVER SEEN IN MY LIFE .MY MOTHER AND I WERE RIDING DOWN THE STREET ONLY TO LOOK OVER TO THE OTHER SIDE A YOUNG LADY LAIDING IN THE STREET WITH HER LEG RIPPED FROM HER BODY BLOOD WAS EVERYWHERE.IT WAS SO DISCUSSING ALLIE IT BROUGHT TEARS TO MY EYES .HER BODY PARTS WERE ALL OTHER THE STREET.WELL LET ME TRY TO GET ON A BETTER NOTE.THINGS WITH ME ARE KOSHER ,IAM NOT SICK OR ANYTHING JUSTIN IS FINE ,RAY'S GOOD. I JUST WANTED TO LET YOU KNOW YOU WERE ON MY MINE .I MISS YOU ALLIE.I LOVE ALLIE.##imported-begin##mona lisa##imported-end##
