

Alice Viola Hinton

March 25, 1966 - October 14, 2020

Alice Viola Hinton affectionately known as "Poochie" was born on March 25, 1966 to the late Ernest and Alice Hinton. After a short illness, she was called home to be with the Lord on October 14, 2020.

Alice was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System, where she graduated from Southwestern High School in 1984. Alice was employed by Broadway Services for 14 years at the time of her passing.

Spending time with her family and friends was always a priority for her. It was always Veronica and "Poochie" as they were not only sisters, they were best friends. It was unusual to call either name without saying the other, as they were inseparable. She was known for her sense of fashion and her love for dancing. The happy person she was, she was always smiling and laughing and her zefulness filled the room.

Alice was the proud mother of two sons who meant the world to her; James Moore and Rakeem McCaskill. Ronnie McCaskill has been her devoted companion for over 21 years through this loving union, Rakeem was born.

Alice was preceded in death by her parents, Ernest and Alice Hinton; brother, Darryl Hinton; uncle and aunt, Willie and Viola Austin and many other loved ones.

Alice leaves to cherish her memory, her companion, Ronnie McCaskill; two sons James Moore and Rakeem McCaskill; one sister, Veronica Hinton; one brother, James Hinton; a god sister, Connie; two nieces, Monica Braxton and Crystal McCaskill; three great nieces, Makayla Braxton, Adalia Muhammad, and Daeonna Leach; one great nephew, Elijah Faison and a host of devoted extended family and friends.
