

Alice J.L. Walker

December 14, 1933 - July 15, 2002

Alice Jessie Louise Walker, daughter of the late Edward and Georgia Nance, was born on January 14, 1933 in Greenville, South Carolina. She departed this life on July 15, 2002. "Louise," as family and friends affectionately knew her, was educated in the Public School System of South Carolina. She accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as her personal Savior at an early age. Louise loved the Lord and knew He was the strength of her life. Louise was a hard working person who had been working since the age of twelve. She moved to Baltimore at the age of twenty-one, where she gained employment as a housekeeper for private homes. She was devoted to her children, grandchildren, family and friends. Louise was a people person. She always had a smile for everyone. She loved everyone. To know Louise was to love her. She leaves to mourn: three sons, Sylvester Jr., Ricky and Larry Walker; daughter, Vanessa Carter; seven grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren, six sisters, two brothers, a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
