

Alice A. Parrotte

December 31, 1945 - April 26, 2014

ALICE A. PARROTTE was born on December 31, 1945 to Lessie and the late Sterling Henry Parrotte. She departed this life on the evening of April 26, 2014. Alice began her education at Holly Grade School (Virginia) and completed her education at Carver Vocational Technical High School in Baltimore, Maryland. After graduation, she began her career at Western Electric, where she retired after twenty years of service. She held numerous jobs up until her illness, when she resigned from Saul E. Kerpelman & Associates. On July 10, 1966, Alice was blessed with her only child, the love of her life, Lamont Eugene Parrotte. Alice loved all types of music. She was a homebody type of person who was very creative with her hands, loved sports, loved family gatherings and most of all, loved to entertain humor. Alice was a strong-willed and opinionated woman and if you were fortunate enough to be deemed her friend, you had a friend for life. Alice was preceded in death by her son, Lamont Eugene Parrotte (Marty); sister Gwendolyn Denise Parrotte-Bush (Peaches) and granddaughter, Chantel Martinique Parrotte. Alice leaves to cherish her memory: her mother, Lessie Parrotte; sister, Joyce Parrotte-Reese; her brother, Andre Parrotte and his wife, Sonia; granddaughter, Channelle Parrotte; two nieces, Maria Parrotte Ivy and Keisha B. Flood-Scott; three great-grandchildren; her daughter-in-law, Tracey Parrotte-Robinson; three aunts, Mamie Yerby, Druillia Ferguson and Hortense Conway; two uncles, Shermon Dameron and Andrew Parrotte; long-time companion, James Brook of Virginia; two devoted friends, Brenda Chase and Freda

Campbell; and a host of cousins and friends.

“I am sorry for the loss of your loved one and offer my condolences. God has promised to one day soon eliminate death forever, along with all sickness, pain and sorrow. (Rev. 21:4) He has also promised to reunite us with our dear loved ones on a restored paradise earth. The Bible says he longs to do this. (Job 14:14,15; Acts 24:15) God always fulfills his promises.
