

Alice Mae Phillips

March 27, 1957 - February 10, 2019

Alice Mae Phillips was born to the late John and Susan Jackson on March 27, 1957 in Gasburg, Virginia. She departed this life on February 10, 2019 after a long illness. She received her education in the Richmond Public School System.

Alice will always be remembered for her hearty laughter, caring spirit, and a generous heart. She never met a person in need that she didn't find some way of helping. She was loving to all and full of personality.

Her God-given gift of singing was often heard in the annual June Jubilee event held in the city during the 80's. Singing was her passion. One of the most memorable moments in her life was reaffirming her faith and being baptized in July of 2009 at the age of fifty-two. Armed with a renewed vigor, her faith in God was intensified, despite her many health challenges. No matter how hard it was she didn't complain; but smiled and beautifully sang her way through it.

She leaves to cherish her memory three brothers, Louis Jackson, Carl Jackson, of Richmond, Va; John Jackson (Renee) of Wilmington, NC; two sisters, Nancy Roney (Floyd), Carolyn Fawole, both of Richmond, Va; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other devoted friends.

We thank God for sharing her with us. There is no descriptive epitaph to describe our love for her. We humbly submit her and our cares to God our Gracious Father whose “mercies endureth forever” Her legacy of unconditional love and self -sacrificing service to others will remain forever in our memories.
