

Alice Lee Russell

October 30, 1935 - January 4, 2018

ALICE LEE RUSSELL was born on October 30, 1935, to the union of the late Samuel and Sarah Boddie. She was the oldest of six children. She departed this life peacefully on January 4, 2018, after a short illness.

Alice received her formal education in Baltimore, Maryland where she graduated from Paul Laurence Dunbar High School. She was noted as being smart, well-liked in school and always helpful and kind to others. After graduation, Alice worked at various department stores. She like to interface with customers and provide styling expertise. After several years in the industry, she decided to explore new opportunities and went to work at City Hospital (now Johns Hopkins Bayview) in the pharmacy department. Alice was employed for 30 years, until she retired.

Alice was known for her sense of fashion, beauty, kind spirit and effervescent smile. She often greeted those she knew well and loved but had not seen in a while by stating "hi stranger" which was her way of acknowledging that you were missed. Alice loved music, she loved sing and dance. However most of all, she loved spending time with her family. Alice accepted Christ in her childhood, she was a member of several churches during her life and joined Ray of Hope Church later in life where she was devoted member.

In 2008, due to decline in health, Alice became a resident at Atrium Village

Nursing Home. She was often seen playing Bingo and socializing with many residents. In 2014, she moved to Arlington West Nursing Home, where she loved watching movies and being involved in activities until her passing. She was preceded in death by her late loving husband of sixteen years, Sam Russell, and her devoted, adoring son, Macardo Boddie.

Preceding her in death are her siblings, Betty Cutchin, Samuel Boddie Jr. and David Boddie. Comforted by her memory are: her devoted sister, Mary Senora Frazier of Baltimore, Maryland; her supportive brother, Roland I. Boddie of Baltimore, Maryland; her attentive step-daughter, Laferne Johnson; dedicated brothers-in-law, Joseph Frazier and Claude Cutchin; sister-in-law, Kim Boddie; three aunts, Lillian Covington, Sylvia Boddie, and Florine Boddie; niece, Monica Boddie; two nephews, Alan and Andre Cutchin; three great-nieces, great nephew and a host of other relatives and friends.
