ALICE WILLIAMS, daughter of the late Anderson Asher and Blanche Marshall, was born on April 16, 1934 in Charlotte Court, Virginia. She departed life on January 3, 2009 after a lengthy illness. Alice moved to Baltimore at the age of sixteen. She worked at Sinai Hospital for thirty-four years as a Nursing Technician on the Pediatrics and Medical Floors, where she retired in 1994. Alice gave her life to Jesus many years ago. She was a member of Pentecostal Holiness Church for several years under the Ministry of Mother Ruth Neal. Our heavenly father knows how you all are fairing in your recent loss. Just think what life would be like when dying is a thing of the past forever. We have comfort from the bible to look to the future with with great confidence, Isa.25:8, Isa.33:24. There will no more pain, sorrow , tears , death, Why? because God is making all things , Rev.21:3-5. I am looking for to that happening, because the bible can not lie.
