“ To the Wright Family;
My wife and I would like to express our deepest sympathy over the loss of Alice. She will be missed by all who knew her. Revelation 21:3 - 5; John 5: 28 & 29 It is our hope that these words bring you a measure of comfort during this difficult time. Once again, please accept our condolences as you deal with the loss of Alice and contemplate the hope of seeing her again.

“ My aunt Jeanette so vibrant. She took was like a mom to me. Jeanette always had time for everyone... everyone including her family, co workers, neighbors and friends. U see tshe was jeanette, not auntie , because jeanette would walk in a room with high heeled shoes and one BAD dress and turn every head. She worked hard and had came home still with a smile on her face. Jeanette would ALWAYS listen to what u had to say. There will never be another...my aunt Jeanette.
