

Alicia A. Cureton

August 6, 2002 - February 28, 2004

Alicia A. Cureton, daughter of Monalisa Mackey and Vardia Cureton, was born on August 6, 2002 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on February 28, 2004 at the tender age of 1 year and 6 months. Though Alicia didn't live a long life, she lived a sweet one. Anyone who came in contact with her would automatically take to her. Alicia's smile and laughter would brighten the room and everything around her. Alicia was a happy child; she made everyone around her happy, and will be sincerely missed by those who knew her. She leaves to mourn: her mother, Monalisa Mackey; father, Vardia Cureton; grandmother, Blanche Bingsley; five brothers, Joshua Mackey, Emanuel Mackey, Ember Mackey, Luke Mackey and Tyrease Cureton; two sisters, Rochelly Mackey, and Alexis Mackey; aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

“ To the family, Please accept my sympathy and deepest condolences. During this very difficult time please remember that there still remains a source of comfort and strength for you. Psalm 34:18 tells us that "God is near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves."##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy goes to the family of Alicia. Death is definitely an enemy. As noted in the bible, at Psalm 55:22, by drawing close to God in prayer, "he himself will sustain you." It also brings comfort and hope at John 5:28,29 - "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." I hope that you are able to draw some comfort from these words.##imported-begin##Samone Smith##imported-end##

“ My sincere condolences to the family on the loss of your young one in death. The Bible has been of much comfort to our family during times of grief. Here are a couple of scriptures that may help you also: 1Corinthians 15:26- "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." And Isaiah 26:19- "Your dead ones will live...They will rise up." It is my hope that these words give you solace during this difficult time.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
