

Alicia Y Colbert

January 22, 1964 - September 1, 2021

ALICIA “PEACHES” YVETTE COLBERT was born on January 22, 1964 in Baltimore, Maryland to proud parents, the late Leroy and Delores Scott Colbert. Alicia was the youngest of four born to the couple’s union.

Alicia “Peaches” accepted Christ at an early age and received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. Peaches truly loved God. She was a loving daughter, sister, mother, aunt, cousin and friend to all. She was a very caring, driven and empowering woman who touched the hearts of everyone whom she encountered. Peaches loved to work and served as a volunteer for many programs. She was a lover of life. She enjoyed spending time with family and friends cooking, dancing and listening to music.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her son and daughter, Joshua and Jasmine; two brothers, Gary and Maurice; brother-in-law, Dwight Fleming; two special sisters, Ruthie Kelly and Karen Smith (sister Beatrice “Sugar Lump” Fleming preceded her in death). She also leaves devoted nieces and nephews, Markiesha, Shelby, Joi, Toni, Tanea, Maurice, Ryan, Larail; great-nieces and -nephews, Jalen, Milaun, Aujshe, Anniya, Markeese, Ryane, Mariah; uncle, Alfred E.

Johnson; four aunts, Lillian, Joyce, Virginia and Clara; great aunt, Elaine (aunts Regina and Mildred preceded her in death). She will be truly missed by her cousins, Meche, Tonya, Lynn, Karen, Paula, Christie, Tiny, Derek; and a host of other relatives, friends and coworkers.

“ Alicia it’s hard to believe you’re not with us anymore. It was a pure delight and pleasure to have met you. I enjoyed our many conversations and laughs. Your kind and gentle spirit brought light and laughter wherever you were. I know that Jasmine and Joshua were the love of your life as you often spoke of them. You will truly be missed sis! Please know I love you Alicia and I know you are at rest. Until we meet again RIP 🙏
